CPV 2008 Ministry Accomplishments

By God's grace,

- We restarted the sexual education program in the schools.
- We raised up a number of volunteers.
- We had a successful publicity campaign.

Dear Friends

I want to thank God for standing near us in the battle against the enemy. Our mission here is to present the Truth. In a world in which nobody pays attention for values, a world in which young people are assaulted by wrong answers at their questions and at their unclear thoughts, we want to show the One who is The Way, The TRUTH and The Life, and His words.

There is an intense battle, in which we have a strong need for prayers, a struggle in which we want to wrest people from the darkness, to tell them the truth about the premarital sexual life consequences, about life, about abortion, and in a special way, about Him—the One who can fill any emptiness in their souls.

By His grace we can see lives changed and good decisions made. We can see His message touch the hearts of the girls who have a pregnancy crisis, the pupils' hearts who are pressed to begin their sexual life. Our role here is to be faithful for the mission He gave to us: to show The Truth. And God will make it work.

—Elisabeta Porut, CPV-Cluj Director
