Hilversum, Netherlands

- Hilversum is often called “media city” as it is the principal center for radio and television broadcasting in the Netherlands.
- Hilversum’s population has declined from 103,000 in 1964 to 84,000 in 2006 (the Netherlands has 16.5 million people).
- Hilversum was the headquarters of the German ground forces in the Netherlands.

The Netherlands and Abortion

- In the Netherlands, both abortion and euthanasia are legal.
- The Netherlands has 22,800 abortions a year and a rate of 9 abortions per 1,000 childbearing women.

Email Counseling at Cry for Life

In our crisis pregnancy center, Muslim girls—among others—are emailing us that they are pregnant and that they are hopeless. On one hand, they want to keep their baby, but because they are not married it is very dangerous for them to be pregnant, because of the honor of the family. In Holland, her family can cast her off or disown her. It also happens that her brother or father kills her (honor-killing). Most of the time these girls get abortions. After the abortion, they are very sad and have emotional problems. In Holland, the problem of honor-killing comes in the open a little bit. The Muslim culture is very hard for women, but men can do (more or less) what they want. Pray for the Muslim girls. Pray that they go to look for Jesus after we have emailed to them about His forgiveness. They understand that they have to wait with sex, but our Dutch culture is telling them that it is normal.

How Can You Partner with LIFE International?

We are looking for individuals, churches, centers, and businesses who will partner with LIFE through prayer and financial support. Every prayer offered and every gift sown into LIFE helps make possible life-giving ministries like Cry for Life. Will you join with LIFE as we multiply life-giving ministries wherever abortion exists?
